How our email works.

All emails are sent to our help center from this contact page. You can ignore the auto reply from this service. By using tags in the subject line, this will notify us who you are trying to reach or what you need help with. Remember, if you have been contacted by a community administrator, you will be able to email them directly using their tag. For example: If their tag was @help, the email would be help@gamerclan.club

Recruiting— Sign up to the community by simply e-mailing us.

Gamer egg hint:

High ranking community leaders get a website you can access by using their @tag names as reference. (Really high ranking members have hidden pages...)
